APRIL FOOLS

- In 1957, the BBC reported that Swiss farmers were experienc- ing a record spaghetti crop.
- In 1962, a technical expert for Sweden’s only TV station an- nounced that viewers could watch the usual black and white broadcast in color if they stretched a pair of nylon stockings and taped it over their screens.
- In 1972, newspapers around the world reported the sensation- al news that the dead body of the Loch Ness Monster had been found in Loch Ness, Scotland. According to the story, a team at the Flamingo Park Zoo in in North Yorkshire, Eng- land examined it. It was later revealed that the body of an el- ephant seal was used with its whiskers shaved off and rocks put in its mouth to change his appearance. The zoo’s educa- tion officer admitted pulling this prank to fool his colleagues.
- In 1976, astronomer Sir Patrick Moore told listeners on the BBC that at 9:47 a.m. on April 1 there would be a temporary alignment of Pluto and Jupiter which would cause a reduction in Earth’s gravity, allowing people to levitate.
- In 1996, Taco Bell announced it was purchasing Philadel- phia’s Liberty Bell, and its name would became the Taco Lib- erty Bell
- In 1998, Burger King advertised a Left-handed Whopper.

Memorials:

Ray Peterson Family
Bev Hansen in Memory of Cyril

Thanks to Tammy for your creative decorating to help make our center so festive!

Thank you to those of you that take the time to bring in baked items, ice cream and all the other goodies for 2:30 coffee.

Thank you for the volunteer hours that many of you provide us each month. You are the Center's treasured angels
Our Sincere Apology if we have forgotten to mention anyone.
We are so VERY Grateful!
