O Perfect Day

*O perfect day, from your great treasury
 What may I take what lovely, precious thing
 To hold within my heart eternally?
 The glint of sunlight on a purple wing.
 The love notes of a mating bird at dawn,
 The soft insistent murmur of the bees,
 The crystal dewdrops sparkling on the lawn,
 The flickering shadows underneath the trees,
 Nasturtiums flaming by an old stone wall,
 The golden glory of a rose in bloom,
 The lilt of laughter ringing joyously,
 My little children playing with their ball?
 O perfect day, there is no room, no room-
 My heart could never hold such ecstasy.*

Summer Days

*Soft green grass and babbling brooks,
 A waterfall's glistening theme,
 While Mother Nature paints for us
 Summer's wildest dream.*

*A ribbon of moonlight in an evening sky.
 A lonely breeze through cedars tall,
 Softly makes a rustling sound,
 As it answers to the whippoorwill's call.*

*Silver dewdrops upon emerald trees,
 Where the lovely songbird sings,
 Helps to fill my heart with joy,
 The happiness that summer brings.*
