Celebrations for the Fourth of July

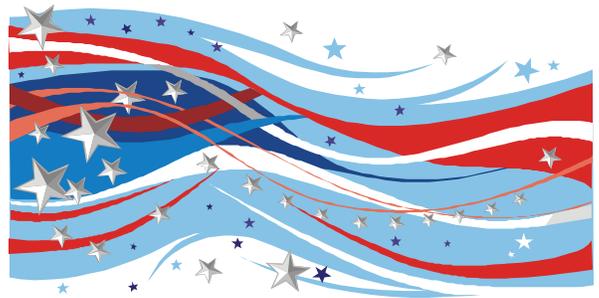

On July 4th, 2009, the Liberty Bell in Philadelphia will be symbolically tapped 13 times at 2:00 p.m. EDST. This ceremony, honoring the signing of the Declaration of Independence, is a long-standing tradition in the city, but the Let Freedom Ring National Bell Ringing Ceremony is observed by people all over the U.S. wherever there's a bell to ring and citizens to hear it ringing.

Please join us at the Center to-
Celebrate the Fourth of July on July 2nd

Our featured special entertainment will be:
Philip Pfaltzgraff and Katie Hansen performing
"Patriotic American Classics".

Luncheon Menu:

Country Baked Steak
Baked Potato
Broccoli
Beet Pickle
WW Bread
Tapioca Pudding
Milk, Coffee

Relish these words:

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness."

"And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, Our Fortunes and our sacred Honor."

-Declaration of Independence, July 4, 1776.

It is good to be reminded of our country's origins and our founding fathers eloquent words.
